Dear Madam,

I was profoundly distressed to learn from press reports about the demise of your good husband & hasten to offer you my sincere condolence in your sad bereavement.

I hope you'll be remembering me as your well-wisher & ardent fan in days of your cinematic career as a "star", when I had been to see you at the Mad in the time of your late good husband Mr. Lai.

With renewed condolences,

Yours Sincerely,

J. H. Huntson.
