My dear Devika,

Thank you very much for sending the relevant data about the 90th birth anniversary of Prof. Nicholas Roerich. I have also received your letter of 5th October 1964 and have despatched one telegram on behalf of the Chairman of the Akademi and one on my own. Copies of the telegrams sent are enclosed.

You may kindly arrange to send me two brief articles from both O.C. Gangoly as well as Venkatachalam, which I shall pass on to the Editor Contemporary Publications, for inclusion in the next issue of our Journal. The second issue of our Journal is, unfortunately, already in the press and nearing completion, otherwise we could have these articles in this one.

With best regards,

Yours sincerely,

( B. C. Sanyal )

Dear Devika,

I received your letter of the 18th October. Please convey my congratulations to Svetoslav on his receiving awards from the Mysore Government.

The two articles you sent me have already been passed on to the Editor (Contemporary) for appropriate use in the next issue of the Journal. I have also noted the typing error indicated by you.

I hope we shall meet in November, when Svetoslav should be coming here to attend the General Council meeting on the 29th, for which we shall issue the notice in due course.

With warmest regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Devika,

I received your letter of October 26, 1964. I shall certainly arrange to send you six copies of the Journal as and when it is published. In the meantime, I look forward to meet you and Svetoslav when you come to Delhi by the end of this month. May I request you to keep a day free for me either for lunch or dinner along with some old friends? The date and time I shall confirm later.

With warmest regards,

Sincerely Yours
