

Air Chief Marshal Arjan Singh

HIGH COMMISSION OF INDIA,
NAIROBI.

10th October, 1974

My dear Devika ji,

Promila Thakore, along with her husband, dropped in this morning to deliver your nice note and greetings. It was indeed thoughtful of you to write. I enjoyed having a long talk with both of them and do look forward to meeting them again.

We would be delighted to have you both here with us. It is really a beautiful country with much wild game well preserved for tourists, a source of immense income. The people of Indian origin are, however, living under tension due to the misdeeds of some African leaders and a few restrictive policies of this Government. We are hoping that nothing unpleasant would recur in East Africa.

With every good wish and affectionate regards,

Yours very sincerely,

Arjan Singh
