My dear Devika, Satis and I thank you and your husband most sincerely for your kind remembrance of us. We too are most sorry that circumstances came in the way of our meeting more frequently. We left a message by phone at your hotel, but we doubt if you received it. When you come to Delhi again, do let us know well in advance.

With affectionate regards and all good wishes.

Cordially yours,
Hassan Ali Khan

Dear Devika,

It is very sweet of you indeed to have sent me the lovely gift. I thank you most warmly for it.

The Jubilee Session of the All-India Women's Conference will take ~~me~~ away from Delhi from the 20th April to the 19th May. Sadis too will be away for part of that period in Calcutta. But both of us will return in time to meet you during your forthcoming visit and have you and your husband come to our home.

This time, there must be no mistake.

Love and all of the best.

Yours,

~~Harold~~
