My dear Devikarani,

Thank you for your letter of 28th. I am glad that you will be in Mysore on the 16th October. I have been feeling guilty that I have not been able to come to see you all these months. I have been waiting for a suitable opportunity. Unfortunately I shall have to be away on the 16th also as I have to leave for Delhi on the same day. I shall certainly listen to the broadcast of Mr. Roerich on the 9th October at 9.15 p.m. The university also has a guest house. You would be most welcome to stay in the University Guest House in the Manasa Gangotri campus. I would have been too glad to receive you and Mr. Roerich at my residence, but unfortunately I have to ~~be~~ leave Mysore early in the morning on the 16th.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

My dear Devikaraniji,

I am greatly disappointed that I shall not be here when you come to Mysore. I have arranged that you and Mr. Roerich should stay at the Vice-Chancellor's residence. I am leaving necessary instructions with my P.A. Mr. Adisesh who will attend to you. I have also spoken to our Registrar Mr. K.R.Ramachandran and you may kindly inform both these persons and they will be very happy to make arrangements at my residence. I am sorry my wife and I will not be here to attend to you. My wife had gone to Delhi to see off my son who left for United States a few days back and has not yet returned. I have to leave for Ahamedabad on the 16th for the convocation of the Gujarat Vidyapeeth.

I shall be visiting you in Bangalore soon.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,
K. Shrimali

My dear Devikarani Ji,

Thank you for your letter of 29th instant.
I am happy to learn that you and Mr. Roerich enjoyed your stay in Mysore. You have echoed the same feelings which I have towards you and Mr. Roerich.
As the years pass the warmth of feeling has grown since we first ~~first~~ met at Udaipur.

I am grateful to you for your kind invitation and I shall take the earliest opportunity to visit you.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,
