

6th October 1964.

My Dear Madam,

The driver came in with your note at 12 noon.
Thanks for the note.

12 copies of the news item were already made before the driver could come.

1 copy of Dr. Radhakrishnan's message and 1 copy of Dr. Kabir's message has been done and kept ready.

Copies of Air Lines receipt is made and Patsy is now making the copies of Bills sent by Vivek.

Received Rs.32/- for Jansons and Rs.15/- for the telegrams. But, Madam - Jansons bill is Rs.37.03 and not Rs.32/-.

The telegrams have been sent and the balance Rs.5/- is herewith sent.

Phoned H.M.T. but could not contact Mr. P.M.
Raje as it is a holiday. We also tried his residence.

Phoned Mr. Moses - Mr. Moses is not in Bangalore it seems. He left for Mysore and will be back tomorrow morning.

Mr. Rangarajan from Judge Press is unwell and has not come to office today.

We were unable to contact Mr. Murthy, but shall do so at about 4 p.m. and shall ask him about the book.

Mr. G. Venkatachalam's Article is typed and shall start on the Akashvani article about Prof. Roerich.

Mr. Kusumaker phoned to say that he has spoken to the Madras Mail Correspondent (Mr. Krishnaswamy) about the article written by Mr. Venkatachalam and if you want to contact him, we should phone 24381.
The article about Prof. Roerich in TIMES OF INDIA,
Sunday 4th of October - contact the Agent R.S. Cooper
Phone No.24366.

Maj. Talwar's son had come to see you.

Carpenter has just come in and is now busy with your table.

The monkey's are playing havoc in the balcony.
One flower pot from above has been dropped by them and the cushion has been nibbled.

PHYLLIS - Arranging the cyclostyled pages.

PATSY - Typing copies of Bills.

I am herewith sending the following:

- 3 Ack. Due cards.
- 4 letters.
- 1 Book Post.
- 1 Newspaper.

The sweeper woman has come and cleaned the place today.

Regards to you and Dr. Roerich,

Yours affectionately,

Lizzie
