Dear Madame Keric,

How perfectly sweet of you to send us some more vegetables & fruit as well as your delicious butter. It is really extremely kind of you & we are most grateful. It will be so nice to see you all here on Wednesday.

Yours sincerely

Dear Madame Kserich,

It really is most awfully kind of you to let us share your marvellous fruit. We have been revelling in the plums, which are the most delicious I have ever tasted.

I also return the stick your son so kindly lent us last night.

Yours sincerely

Dear Madame Aserick,

We were just going out to lunch with the deghans when your lovely fruit arrived, which accounts for my not answering sooner. It is most awfully kind of you to send us such a lot of your beautiful plums & apples, & I am so glad my husband will have an opportunity of ~~trying~~ trying the delicious green gages which I enjoyed so much yesterday evening.

We both look forward so much to tea tomorrow.

Yours sincerely

Alice M. MacLeod
