Dear Madame Roerich,

After a long absence I have returned home today and I want to take the earliest opportunity to write to you and tell you how grateful I am for all your kindness and courtesy during our stay at Naggar. You were perfect hosts and Naggar was delightful. Even a week there in your company has meant a great deal to me and I have returned a little better in mind and body because of it. I am so glad that I could manage to spend a few days with you and the Professor and thus have had a chance of meeting you both personally. I hope we shall meet again. In any event, I shall often think of you and of the brief week we spent with you.

With my regards to you and Professor Roerich and many thanks, I am,

Yours sincerely
Jawaharlal Nehru
