

PRIME MINISTER'S HOUSE,
NEW DELHI.

15.2.52

Dear Madame Roerich,

Yesterday I had lunch with Devika Rani & Evoslav and heard from them that it was your birthday the day before. Evoslav said he had tried in vain to get you on the telephone. So I am writing to wish you a very happy year. I often think of the nice hours I spent with you in Darjeeling. Kade Base died nearly one year ago. Though I did not see her often, I miss her. She always used to write me such interesting letters.

Unfortunately I have not much time

For holidays, & then are many of my friends I would like to visit. It seems that I get more work the older I grow.

I must say that I would like to have an easier time. And Delhi is not a very attractive place to live in when one does not have a car of one's own.

However, I have a few friends living not too far away & I go and see them now & then on my cycle.

Please remember me to George. And to yourself I send the best wishes & love.

Yours affly

Anna Ornstrolch
