Dear Madame Roerich,

We should be so pleased if you would all come to lunch on Sunday, May 7th, at 1.15 pm. I do hope your son has now quite recovered.

I wonder if by any chance you have any eggs for setting you could let us have, we have a hen just gone broody & would like to try & hatch one more lot as our first batch was not too successful. I think the hen's capacity would be about 9 eggs if you could spare those. Miss Donald unfortunately could not let us have any of hers.

With kind regards

Yours sincerely

Kate Harcourt.

Dear Madame Roerich

' I feel

I must just write a line of thanks for the magnificent tea to which you entertained so many of us, also for the walnuts & apples which I mentioned to your son but not to you. We enjoyed seeing the birds, especially Mr. Fleming who knows something about them, but I should like to see them again sometime when I do not have to keep half my attention on Sara!

hee hope you will come & have a meal with us later on when we get settled in at Nazgarr

Yours sincerely

Kate Harcourt.
