

Kalimpong,

10th July, 1955.

Dear Sir,

Please refer to your letter of the 14th ult. (F 33-30/54AI).

My Tibetan-Sanskrit-English Dictionary is still in manuscript form due to the size of the manuscript and the present difficulty of publishing works of such magnitude. Preliminary work was completed in 1935. In 1936 on my return to India, I started revising it, but was obliged by circumstances to discontinue the work in 1942.

The West Bengal Government are now publishing a Tibetan grammar and short vocabulary by myself.

Thanking you for your inquiry,

Yours faithfully,

(G. Roerich)

Shri G. F. Lakhani,
Deputy Secretary,
Ministry of Education, India.
