

Kalimpang,

19th March, 1952.

It gives me great pleasure to give this letter of introduction to my friend Prince Min-Wang of Bortut. The Prince is a scholar in both Chinese and Russian and is deeply versed in Buddhism. Any advice given to him will be highly appreciated.

I read with interest and profit your Buddha-carita. I have asked the Greater India Society to forward you a copy of my "Indology in Russia". I hope they have done it.

With very best wishes to Mrs Tagore and yourself,
