Dear Professor Roerich,

I was delighted to receive your kind and courteous letter of Feb. 20th, 1956. I have long been heard your fame, and recently informed occasionally of your movement by Miss Chie-ko Nakane, and anxious for becoming your acquaintance. I hardly know how to thank you for your thoughtfulness with which you received my little book and read for examining it. I must tell you how much I was encouraged and suggested, and valuably informed by your INTRODUCTION to your book, BLUE ANNALS, when I wrote my book on Tibetan Chronological study, as I referred to this respect in the Introduction and the Body of my book.

I also have the pleasure to send you by a separate (ordinal) mail a copy of "An Eastern Tibetan Dictionary And A Study of the Eastern Tibetan Language" (1954), edited cooperatively by 4 pursuers including myself, though I am not sure if you have got it or not.

May I ask you for what I feel most desirable to have, — I shall be very much grateful if you would kindly consider to give me your precious books, BLUE ANNALS, Part 1 and 2?

Again thanking you for your kindness, and hoping that you are in the very best of health.

Most sincerely yours.

Bunkyo Aoki.

In passing, I should like to tell you that the hill-town of གཞི་ལྗོངས།, where you now live, is one of my most remiscent place, where I made long-time sojourns both before and after my visit to Lhasa from 1912 to 1916. I can't help reminding those happy days — what an impressive place it is to me!

Dear Professor Roerich,

I hardly know how to thank you for the precious gifts, The Blue Annals, you kindly sent me under Registered Parcel Post a long ago, and reached here on the 15th August, 1956.

Please excuse me that I made delay of the information owing to the heavy sickness which suffered then me, and I am still in the sick-bed. I am very sorry I can't write to you as I wish. I but hope that if you would help me in my study in this respect for ever.

Most sincerely yours,
