My dear George,

I have a letter from Mrs. Campbell before me in which she says that you found six pairs of socks in the air mattress which I sent to Mother Roerich. They were there by mistake. I shall be thankful if you will kindly return these to me. I did not discover any note-books. These must have been in the box which was lost in Paris by my Secretary. I am extremely sorry but I am making attempts to get you some more note books from Switzerland.

Please give my regards to Mother Roerich. I hope she is keeping well. I am sorry to learn from Mrs. Campbell that she will not visit us this year.

Yours sincerely,

(S. S. BHATNAGAR)
