Dear Dr. Roerich,

After many peregrinations in India and Nepal I left New Delhi the 11st March and arrived the following day in Amsterdam. It is already a long time ago since I visited Kalimpong but I remember very well the pleasant hours spent at your place. I hope that your work is progressing well and I shall always be glad to hear about your studies. Has your grammar of colloquial Tibetan been published finally ?

At the moment I am reading Hoffmann's Religionen Tibets and I remember your remarks about the various editions of Kanjur and Tanjur about which such a great misunderstanding is still rampant. I should like to suggest to you writing a short article about this topic for the "Indo-Iranian Journal" but of course we shall be glad to publish also articles by you on other subjects. Any contribution (also in the form of reviews and short notes) to the IIJ will be most welcome.

With kindest regards,

sincerely yours,
