My Dear George,

I wonder whether you have that Bengali Dictionary I gave you, or whether you could have it sent to me for a time from New York? I am working at a Bengali book and often find I need a Dictionary and would be grateful if you can lend me yours for a couple of months or so.

I am still staying on here and may even stay on through the summer. Dr Tagore has given up the idea of a lecturing tour in the States so I shall be very probably free to do some lecturing myself while I am in this country.

I expect to see Dr Tagore in Chicago soon

With best wishes for the New Year

Your affectionate friend
W. W. Pearson.
