Dear Sir,

On the occasion of the 2500th anniversary of the birthday of Lord Buddha, May 24, 1956, for the celebration of which preparations are being made on a great scale in India and to attend which invitations are being extended to delegates of all countries of the world, Amrita Bazar Patrika proposes to bring out a special supplement appropriate to the occasion.

We beg to approach you with a request to kindly contribute an article to this number on "Tibetan Buddhism".

Should you be kind enough to contribute the article, please see that we get it by the end of April so that we may have sufficient time to display it adequately. We shall welcome any pictures you may like to send to illustrate the article.

Kindly write us a line in acknowledgement.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

23rd May 19 56

Dear Sir,

We are very sorry to inform you that owing to an eleventh-hour change in our original plan, we have had to reduce the size of the Buddha Jayanti Supplement necessitating detention of certain contributions already accepted for their accommodation in the said supplement. Our original plan was an all-comprehensive treatment of Lord Buddha's life and teachings and the spread of Buddhism in India and the world. But, latterly we realized that it was too ambitious a scheme for the time at our disposal. So we have decided to divide the treatment of the theme into two aspects international and national. In the ensuing supplement coming out on May 24 we have stressed the international aspect and reserved the national one for our Sunday Magazines, week by week. Be it noted that the Jayanti celebrations will continue over a year. So the accepted contributions that could not be used in the supplement will be appropriately released every Sunday after the 24th May. They will not lose their interest.

We trust we have made our position clear to you and hope you will not feel disappointed as we have decided to use in our Sunday Magazine all the accepted articles that could not be released in the supplement.

Yours faithfully,

R. N. Chowdhury

Dear Sir,

Your letter of June 10 and am extremely sorry for the change in our plan to publish the Jayanti issue. Since then we have been publishing all these articles serially in our Sunday Magazine issues.

Because your article is of outstanding character and deals with a subject which is only vaguely known in the country we have deliberately not allowed it to be crowded with articles dealing with other aspects of Buddhism.

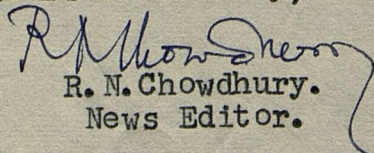

It is, however, coming on this Sunday: By the time we received your letter the Magazine pages with the article are already printed.

I hope you will not notice any indifference on our part to give due emphasis to any article coming from a scholar like yourself. The particular issue with the article will be reaching you along with our Sunday paper.

Hope you will appreciate our point of view.

Yours faithfully,
