My honoured and illustrious Friend,

I was deeply pleased to receive news from our European Center in Paris, that you have endorsed the Roerich Pact with such touching and beautiful comments. Your creative genius was always close to me and several times has inspired me for paintings on the subject of Princesse Maleine, Sister Beatrice and your other immortal creations.

At present I am happy to convey to you that at the Meeting of the Trustees of Roerich Museum you were elected Honorary Advisor of the Roerich Museum, Division of Art and Letters. You will see on this letterhead several renowned names of persons participating in our cultural organizations.

The election of course is a purely honorary one and does not involve you into any special obligations.

Of the last names of those who have joined our organization but could not yet be entered into this list, we have to mention Sir C.V. Raman, the famous Indian physicist - Nobel Prizewinner of last year, and M. Paul Chabas, President of the Salon des Artistes Francaises.

I am taking this opportunity to send you in the name of Culture my heartiest wishes.

Anticipating the pleasure of your reply

Yours very sincerely,

Honorary President
& Chariman of the Board of Trustees.
