

6.4.43. 1

Dear Mr. Raman

With pleasure I read
your sonorous poem
"Gardener" and "Wife".
Indeed you have a pure vision. Perhaps it would be useful to introduce more action
and condense some sentences - it will add more vigor. I would like to know your biography and work. Carry on.

With best wishes

Cordially

My dear Sir,

Many thanks for your letter of appreciation. It shall be one of my highest ambitions in life to try fulfill the hopes thst I might have roused in you, and I am confident that you will shower your blessings on my endeavours.

To-day I am having my 'Gard-ener' and 'Wife' sent you for favour your most valuable opinion. I should be most grateful to you, if you could go through them and tell me how you feel about each of them. May I expect an early reply please?

With Pranams,
Yours sincerely,

A.S.Raman.
