My dear Friend,

It was the greatest joy to read your powerful inspiring letter to the New-York Press. As a Knight of Spirit you stood up in defense of Culture. Verily our case is most characteristic for the present plight of Culture. The dark ones apply all their ~~abhorrent~~ ingenuity to destroy the world. Their malicious instinct whispers to them that Culture hinders the carrying out of their destructive aims. The dark ones know perfectly well that all times of renaissance all flourishing epochs, were created by culture and not by short-selling ~~books~~. It is true that everyone who stands up at present for Light, ~~experiences~~ the ferocious attacks of racketeers. But happily we know that "Light conquers all darkness". And we feel how all the Knights of Light should be united, in order to make this victory a reality.

In your beautiful, I will say more, even historical letter, you depict so colourfully all the dangers threatening Culture. You know how I like America and how everywhere, where Culture is endangered, we have to be on vigilant guard.

I am sending you and Mrs Fleischer my sincerest thanks in the name of Culture for all your noble deeds . Although we are separated by oceans and mountains, but in spirit we are united and we proceed jointly towards the predestined victory of Light.

Heartily with you,

My dear Friend,

We all are extremely happy to hear how miraculously you recovered from your dangerous illness. Verily a living contact with the Hierarchy of Light brings new strength and new possibilities. If even once you have felt this Sacred Link, it will remain forever in your heart and will transform your life. Feel in your heart our constant thoughts - messengers of friendliness and unity. With best greetings from Madame Roerich and myself to you both

My dear Friend,

You letter gave us deep joy. Everything you wrote is so close to our hearts. We know these wonderful experiences which transfigure human life and help on the constant path of ascent. You with your refined understanding of Life and Culture, were of course fully entitled to receive such High Response and Help in so miraculous a way. And as you correctly perceived, he who felt himself, will never abandon the Great Path of Service. I always welcomed your cooperation and cherished your friendship. You know how imperative it is that all positive elements should be firmly united in cultural work. Just now when the forces of darkness are trying to extinguish everything light-bearing, such a union should be strengthened.

Now after your blissful experiences, you will not only be our trusted friend, not only a cooperator, but one of the closest warriors in the Great Service. How beautiful is it to realize that every approach is infinite. This vast infinity may frighten off some people - ignorant and experienced. But knowledge gives the possibility to admire and aspire to this great Infinity. And in this infinity we shall understand the Great Hierarchy. And as soon as we enter such constructiveness, much will become lighter on the path of our spirit. And unnoticeably we will come into permanent contact with the Highest. It is a wonderful feeling to carry always in one's heart and always visibly to the inner eye, the image of the Great One. Thus is built a bridge, which takes us above and across all trivialities, commotions and misfortunes, which would otherwise crush us. The dark forces are filling everything with malicious foam. We have just witnessed most deplorable occurrences in Germany. Have a confidential talk with Mr. M. Lichtmann about his biblical findings. What is prophecy? It is straight-knowledge as result of communion with the highest, and even in the darkest days we can rejoice knowing the future. But for this future we must work. Really, the future is predestined, but even the most predestined we have to accept more carefully and not to spill it lightmindedly.

At present we face a new period in our activities. And for me it is most precious that you with your deep understanding have come closer to us. Thus observe well everything that surrounds you - for the messenger always comes unexpectedly. We often and heartily think of you and for me it will be a true pleasure to meet you with some important news.

Be strong and bold in your great Service for the Hierarchy of Light.

In Spirit with you,
