Mon tres cher Ami,

Many many thanks for your sonorous "Sortileges de la Paix Chantante". Indeed you are a sower of songs. It is uplifting to see that at the times of world confusion there resounds the voice of a true poet, who reminds people of the eternal sacred conceptions. What beautiful feelings are expressed in your poems! And as real beauty - they are simple. I like to tell you as to a friend that I was deeply moved reading your verses in the present days of general disturbances. Indeed, art in all its aspects is always a benevicial panacea. Mankind should know how to guard art and its creators.

Please convey to Mme Chesneau our best wishes and accept them for yourself.

Very cordially yours

M. Marc Chesneau.
