British India.

My dear Professor Roerich:

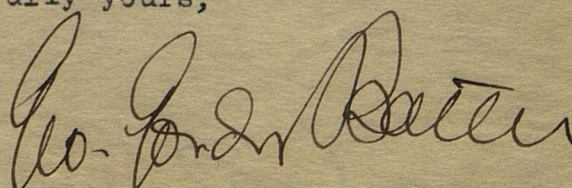

Your letter written on the 4th of February last has just been sent to me by Dr. Horch. It has filled me with the deepest satisfaction and gratitude. I am entirely convinced that the rending and destructive forces which are now so strong in the world can be met and overcome only by the true sympathy and understanding which come from knowledge of the different problems which confront the respective nations and races of men. It is only by this World-Culture that progress may be maintained. In my opinion your noble efforts are doing much to accomplish this great object. I count it an honor and a privilege to receive your teachings.

The Roerich Institute is having its difficulties because of the universal hard times, but Dr. Horch and his associates are meeting the situation with great courage and resourcefulness. I have no doubt that a solution can be found which will make possible the continuation of this good work. It must be deeply gratifying to you to know that you have such loyal, devoted and competent supporters as are to be found in Dr. Horch and the group associated with him.

I look forward with pleasure to seeing you when you are next in this country.

With all good wishes and deep respect and esteem, I am

Faithfully yours,

GGB-VM

My dear Dr. Roerich:

Your letter of April 25th has been received by me and read with great interest and appreciation. As you know, we are having a very difficult time at the Roerich Museum because of the foreclosure proceedings. I am endeavoring to act as an intermediary in the matter, and I hope I shall be able to be of assistance to this noble institution. It would be a great calamity if its work should cease. I feel the utmost confidence that it will continue.

With great respect and esteem, I am

Always faithfully yours,

GGB-VM

My dear Mr. de Roerich:

It gave me very great pleasure to receive the announcement that the Council of the Roerich Museum had requested me to accept the Insignia of the Museum.

I count it a very great honor to have this recognition from the Council which is engaged in such a lofty and beneficent enterprise.

With great respect and esteem, I beg to remain,

Faithfully yours,
