Dear Professor Roerich:

We cabled you a few days ago that Mr. Crane would be glad to have the painting of "Potala" at the price mentioned in your letter of November 3rd, $3,000.

A draft for $1500. has been sent direct to the Imperial Bank of India at Simla for Mrs. Roerich's account. A copy of the letter to the Bank is enclosed.

You will be glad to know that Mr. Crane returned from his brief trip to Egypt in excellent health and is leaving shortly with Mrs. Crane for Palm Springs, California.

Dear Professor Roerich:

With further reference to your letter of March 29th, I have just learned that the Executors mailed a draft on the Imperial Bank of India for the $1,500.00 to Mme. Roerich on April 7th. It seemed better to them to make the payment direct to Mme. Roerich.

Very truly yours,

DMB
