MRS. HOWARD GREEN, CHAIRMAN
104 FRANKLIN AVE., LONG BRANCH, N. J.

Professor Nicholas Roerich,
Himalayan Research Institute.
My dear Mr Roerich.

I am exceedingly interested in your Banner of Peace and am doing all in my power to broadcast the Pact among the three million members of the General Federation.

This year I am to have a series of exhibitions of my portraits on ivory and I would be most happy if you would allow me to paint your portrait for this purpose. For my record you may see "Who's Who" in Art. My work has been accepted by the juries of the Pennsylvania Society of Miniature Painters and the American Society of Miniature Painters and hung in the Pennsylvania Academy and the Grand Central Galleries besides many tother exhibitions.

If you consent, may I have a good photograph, a pose like that of of you painting "Terra Slavonica" or one in robes would be interesting for a portrait. Then when you return perhaps you would allow me to see you so that I may get the correct coloring.

Thanking you and with deep apprecaition of the wonderful work you are doing for the peace of the world.

I am

Yours sincerely

Florence Topping Green.
