My Dear Prof de Roerich

I received your letter with enclosures, for which I thank you very much indeed. The magazine &c has been placed before His Highness who wishes me to convey his thanks & cordial greetings.

His Highness is contemplating a visit to Kulu in the near future & hope to be able to pay you a visit.

The picture that you sent me, I am most appreciative, & I am purchasing several other things you suggest, who most kindly & promptly send some along to me.

I look forward, if His Highness comes to Kulu, to renewing our brief but pleasant acquaintance

- thanking you personally for all you contain

Yours sincerely

BEJAI PALACE.

MANDI.

7th Dec 1933.

My dear Prof de Roerich

I'm sorry not to have written before, but I've been terribly busy.

His Highness and all of us were terribly disappointed that after all our plans to stay at Naggar Castle and pay you a visit on Sunday afternoon last, everything had to be cancelled owing to His Highness catching a chill on the liver on Saturday night after a visit to the hot springs at Manali. He was confined to bed all Sunday, but fortunately was sufficiently recovered to return to Mandi on the Monday evening.

We do so hope that you were not put to any inconvenience and that at no too distant date we may be able to retrieve the lost pleasure of seeing you.

I had hoped to thank you personally for so kindly sending me the photograph of "Book Of Wisdom" but now I must fall back on a letter which is not so good.

I appreciate so much all your courtesdy.

Hoping then to see you soon, and with renewed expressions of regret for causing you any inconvenience

Believe me

Yours very sincerely
