

July 28th 1930
Kye-lang

Dear and beloved prof. Paerich

Although I send off a registered letter with this mail but a notice we read in the military Gazette impels me to write to you again. Vlad. will send you the entire clipping. In this Reuters news is spoken of "russian affiliations" of course we do not know to what "affiliations" the British officials make allusion to but we must say that we are quite proud of your Russian affiliations with the name of Rurik the first Tsar of Russia and builders of the great Russian Empire. That you were such a great figure in ~~the~~ revolutionary Russia and that you were born in Russia cannot be denied, this is already history, but what cause is there else which makes the officials refuse the passport is the greatest puzzle to us.

We were thinking also whence came the legend about the connection with Buddhism. While Mother concentrated about the source of this legend and thought of London it was told to her by the runner

389(1)

1