Revered Sir,

I hereby send you my hearty good wishes on your birth day the October 10th. May several such auspicious days come in your life-dedicated to the cause of culture and enlightenment.

Since long I could not write to you due to many worries and anxieties in my life. Last year sudden successive bereavements of parents and others in the family burdened me to face management of the landed property in rural area in addition to the running of the press here. By the grace of God life is getting accustomed to new needs and on such a happy day of your life I hope to be favoured with your blessings in the fulfilment of my fresh responsibilities.

~~PTO~~ Truly yours

Chandra Bhanu Singh
