Dear Mr. Roerich:

How curious it is to receive a letter from you from Hillside, Darjeeling where I was only last February. I heard much of you from many people in Darjeeling, and in the Red Llama Monastery a few miles away. They told me then that you were far in Tibet. I too hope that we shall meet in the not-too-distant future. It would be wonderful for us to make a journey together in Central Asia, or perhaps in some part of Africa. I have much I should like to talk to you about.

With all good wishes.

Mr. N. Roerich,
Hillside,
Darjeeling, India.
