Dear Professor Roerich:-

I take this opportunity of thanking you for your letter sent me last autumn. It was deeply encouraging to learn that you knew and approved of what I was trying to do in the interpretation of your message: internationalism through art. Any success I may have had has come largely from my conviction of the truth of your vision and from the generous help of the entire group here in New York. I have never worked with any group of people for any cause where the harmony² and willingness have been so great, and that in itself has been a tremendous assurance as to the principles which you have enunciated.

We are all looking forward eagerly to welcoming you here and to receiving your personal direction in our further progress. I in especial am most desirous of finally seeing him who has meant so much to me in strength and inspiration. Your painting of the saint with the arrow and scroll is before me in my library at home where I usually write.
Yours in deepest gratitude to Charles W. Harten & Co.
