Dear Mr Bhat,

I understand from Mr Venkatalchalam that he was specially anxious to have the photograph of my painting of the Kulu Valley which he specially asked me to paint. This painting was typical of the surroundings of the Kulu Valley & depicts the procession of a Kulu God which gave to Kulu the name "Valley of the Gods".

As regards my introduction, I shall be grateful if you would correct the spelling of "Kanya" in Kanya Kumsari by "K" instead of "C" in the case of "Kanya" and also in page 2 in the sentence "Great literature concepts of Bharata lend all her magnificent pagentry" instead of the word "Kaleidoscopic" which precedes the word "pagentry".

Thanking you,

Yours truly,
(Sd) S. Ravi.
