

41334

41334

SR

41333

41333

E1.

NAGGAR,
Kulu, Punjab, Brit. India.

Sept. 6th, 1934.

Dear Madame de Vaux-Phalipau,

Please accept my sincere thanks for the splendid book by your pen, which you so kindly sent me.

Your literary talent together with a very able exposition of the subject, make it a most welcome volume.

This type of books always occupy a special place of importance as they help to throw light upon subjects and events that may have otherwise escaped a correct rendering and thus constitute apart from their literary value a very important historic record.

Please accept again my thanks and sincere good wishes

Yours very cordially

SR

41342

577

Greer ~

Sept. 7, 1934

Dear Mme de Vaux-Phalipau,

Please accept my most sincere thanks for your very kind thoughts in presenting me with the interesting book of your pen. Though my knowledge of your beautiful language is unfortunately not sufficient to write even these lines, I can read and understand sufficiently well to enjoy it.

Thanking you once more and sending you hearty greetings from "Urusvati"

Yours very sincerely

3

Seur Mademoiselle de Vaux

Please accept my sincere thanks for the splendid book by your pen which you so kindly sent me.

Your literary talents together with the very able & profound of the subject have it a most welcome volume.

This type of books always occupy a special place of importance as they help to throw light upon subjects and events that may have otherwise escaped a correct rendering and thus constitute apart from their literary value a very important historical record.

Please accept again my
thanks and sincere good
wishes

Yours very cordially

Emmanuel Perroch

4

Dear Madame de Vaux

Please accept my thanks for the splendid book you so kindly sent me.
Your literary talent <sup>coupled</sup> with the very able exposition of the subject, make it a most welcome ~~contribution~~ ~~addition~~ Volume

This type of book always occupy a special place of importance in they help to throw light upon * subjects and events that may have <sup>otherwise</sup> escaped a correct understanding and ~~thus~~ <sup>are always</sup> a great contribution to the historical records.

Please accept again my
thanks and sincere good
wishes

very
Yours cordially

J R Rouvier

Constitute apart from their literary value
a very important historical record.