My dear Mr. Jilani,

We are very grateful to you for your kind help in finalizing the matter. All the papers have reached us safely and have been sent back to Bangalore. They took a little longer to reach us because they were again sent to Tatgunni Estate instead of to the Indian Bank and as you know anything that is sent to the Estate takes a very long time to reach us.

We hope that you and Mrs. Jilani shall be still in Bangalore by the time we come back and we shall be looking forward to seeing you both. Our date of return has not yet been settled because of some work here. Do let us know at the above address whether you shall still be in Bangalore by the end of May. Delhi has been unusually hot and on some days the temperature will go up 112°F officially and 117°F unofficially, but I believe Bangalore had its share of hot days also.

We both send to Mrs. Jilani and yourself our best wishes and kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(S. ROERICH)

My dear Mr. Jilani,

Many thanks for your letter of the 21st inst. We expect to be in Bangalore around the 15th of June, and we shall certainly be looking forward to the pleasure of seeing Mrs. Jilani and yourself then.

Though we shall miss you in Bangalore, I take this opportunity to felicitate you with your well deserved promotion. Whenever you find yourself in Bangalore, we shall be most happy to see you and Mrs. Jilani, and I hope you will keep in touch with us. We are very grateful to you for all you have done in finalising the matter.

With our kind regards,

Yours very sincerely,

Mr. F.G. Jilani,
Indian Revenue Service,
Appellate Assistant Commissioner of Incometax,
Kurnool.

Dear Mr. Jilani,

I was very happy to have your letter of May 28th and I take this opportunity to heartily congratulate you with your well deserved promotion.

I am still held up here with a great deal of work and only Mrs. Roerich came to Bangalore to attend to a few things.

However, we shall both be back on the 15th when you plan to be there also and we shall look forward to see you and Mrs. Jilani.

Yes, we both regret also that your work has taken you outside Bangalore, but you must always feel that whenever you come back to Bangalore you shall always find in us your affectionate friends.

As you rightly say there are permanent Values in Life which alone make life more beautiful, fuller, richer and worthwhile. By placing them as our ideals we not only partake of the joy of Communion with the broader Planes of Existence, but we immeasurably contribute towards a happier life by recognising the paramount importance of the Higher Planes of Expressions. Those Humanising factors without which life soon ceases to have any meaning.

Looking forward to the pleasure of seeing you soon in Bangalore. With all good wishes and kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Dr. S. ROERICH)
