Dear Mr. Turner,

I was delighted to have your letter and I am very grateful to you for having sent me the interesting clipping.

You may be interested to know that the Libretto for the Sacre du Printemps was suggested by my father and not by Mr. Stravinsky himself as he likes others to believe it. I was getting the royalties for the Libretto so I know well the situation.

We remember with great pleasure your visit to our home and we hope that you will again visit us before long.

I shall be sending the Linaloe water and shall be very interested to know if some application may be found for it.

The development of the new area has almost been completed and we shall be starting our plantings soon.

With kindest regards from us both,

Yours very sincerely,

S. Roerich.
