Dear Inge,

Many Thanks to you for your good Thoughts and readiness to follow the Pledge.

Life Spiritual is the only thing real. The only thing to lose, since if we follow the Law of Evolution we must progress and go on. The Love of Spirit can alone give true friends that precious reflection
in our midst of the "One Unity".

Search not in this Life anything that cannot follow you beyond. We may forget at times that we must pass on to the next Plane, Maya the Great Illusion is strong. He who wishes to ascend the next step must look beyond this Life.
The Bonds of Matter must lose their hold on him who is ready for ascent. Hard is a constant struggle, day and night. But as Sri Krishna said, "He who conquers self is greater than he who conquers thousands in Battle". Once we know the Path let us apply all our Energy to follow it and that which seemed impossible today will become reality tomorrow.

Someday you shall receive a long letter from me.

In the meantime with my best wishes & thoughts
yours S?

Dec 2nd

My Dear Inge

Many thanks for the good thoughts expressed in your letter. If I am late in answering it, it is because the activities of this "Plane" have absorbed a great deal of my time.

However there is nothing static and things evolve. In this life there is one method adopted by all great Reformers upon analysing it you shall see. But simple and grand as it is. - It is to do everything as well as we possibly can. It is matter that it is.

Life is so short, time fleets by. We must listen. In the evening try to think and position yourself that you are becoming better and better in every part of your Self. Try to do so for some times and every day while performing your work, whatever it may be, try to do it better. Always think of "Powhari Baba" the Hindu Saint, who polished his little copper vessel with as much love and care and when he pronounced his prayers. When every part of our strives, then we are not far from the Great God. In the meantime I close with all my best wishes to you for — Christmas & N. Year. —
Yours E. S.

25 Dec 37

Dear, Dear Tye,

We are all so very happy to hear from cables that you are better. Many good thoughts come from here and your picture (with it) stands on my desk and receives my sendings.

We all were terribly shocked at the accident but we trusted all from the very first that you will overcome all this - after efforts. You must be very careful now. And avoid all strains and strain. You are greatly needed in the work and take therefore good care of yourself. Here Lops runs its usual course except I work on rather pains more than before, yet it is not as much as I would like to produce. Time flies so fast sometimes I think we are still in the beginning of the month and then look at the calendar and see it is ~~deep~~ deep.

Everyone here send you their love.

Our girls came in and learning I am now writing you wish to be especially remembered. Yes, it is high time for a "reunion" but we must be patient.

II

Many Thanks for the roots of Ginseng, I did not get them as yet but R. was so busy I know, that I quite understand she could have no time to send them. Fortunately not all seeds died and some are alright. — The first seedling of Ginseng will bear fruit this year. I needed of course only large roots since I heard that some roots grow over two inches thick. These of course are of interest, since my own are now about  this thick. Which is rather good.

The New-York Events are known to you, and I have nothing to add. New ways must be found and new people.

I close with much love and best wishes from S. R. and us all.

My dear Inge,

I was delighted to hear that father's paintings have been released and I hope they will be moved as quickly as possible. I shall be very grateful if you could send me a rough description of the sizes of these paintings though I know the period when they were painted. It would be interesting to remember how many paintings of the larger size are in this lot. Were they all framed and under glass because if so they should be kept like that until I come there and we can see which of them have to be cleaned and fixed up. I consider it very fortunate to secure them as it was an important period of the Kulu-Lahoul sojourn. I imagine the Triptich of Jeanne D'Arc should be among them.

In my last letter to you I have written about my sixteen cases of paintings etc. Do let me know Catherine's and your reactions to my suggestion. You may well guess the reasons for this particular consideration of mine.

I may be sending two small boxes of things directly to you soon. There will be no difficulty for you to receive them. Do let me know sometime, when you have the time, something about your own life and activities. Mother has shown me two clear photographs, one of you near the apple tree and the other one of Catherine somewhere in Florida with the waves behind her and I was very happy to see you both looking so well.

How is the farm getting on and what do you keep on it these days?

Do write soon and in the meantime we send you both our affectionate greetings.

S. Roerich.

Room No.212,
Taj Mahal Hotel,
Bombay 29th January, 1949.

My dear Inge,

I heard from Catherine the other day and I was delighted to see that the paintings had already been secured and safely stored, that is a great achievement and I congratulate you for this success. Now I shall be expecting a list of these paintings as I am very interested to know which particular things are there.

I have heard from Mother that either Catherine or Sina wrote to her to say that there is at present some sort of a medicine which is most effective in cases of Rheumatic Fever and Arthritis. I would like to know the particulars for a friend of mine. According to Mother this remedy was some sort of a specific and produced marvellous results. In case it was Sina who told her about this and you do not know the name of it please find out from her.

In her last letter Catherine has written to say that the U.S. Customs have extended the storage period for 6 months instead of one year. This of course I have noted but I still maintain that the best solution would be to take all these 16 boxes out at the earliest opportunity. The American Consul here is a personal friend of ours and in case the U.S. Customs, or Government, would like some sort of a special type of document executed here to facilitate the securing of the paintings I shall be very glad to do so if only you could let me know what type of paper is really required.

Catherine's last letter describing your life on the farm was a great delight to me and I hope to become a participant before very long. In case you have a photograph of Catherine's little niece, Kay, do send me one, I would like to see it very much. We are of course very happy to know that Panasenky is now fully recovered, that is very good news. Please convey to him my most cordial greetings, tell him how happy I shall be to see him before long.

I hope the Tractor that Catherine proposes to purchase will be a light one, it will definitely come in useful, if it comes to the worst we could use it to move the paintings.

We are all well and leaving for Bangalore the day after tomorrow. Bangalore is midway between Madras and the West Coast and if you have a map I am sure it will not be difficult to find out. We shall be there for ten days or so, after which we again return to Bombay. In the meantime if you could find out what document or paper I should execute here I could easily do it provided we know the type of document that will really be acceptable to the Customs there.

Take good care of yourself, all best wishes and much love from us both.

My dear Inge,

The other day I sent off to you the Declaration duly signed and attested by the United States Consul in Bombay and I sincerely hope that it will meet with all the requirements.

It makes me very happy to think that all these cases shall now be in your possession as I was somewhat worried as regards their safety.

I hope by now you have fully recovered and you have my sincere sympathies and all best wishes always.

Mother and George have gone to Darjeeling where they are staying at the Himalayan Hotel; Mother is well and is feeling much better in general. There is a great deal of work for my brother to do in connection with his studies and he will have to remain there for some time. I have had no letter as yet from them, only telegrams, but I know they had a very pleasant journey. For the time being they will all stay at Kalimpong since it is a much more central place for George's work, as soon as they are established and as soon as I free myself of all the incessant worries and details which I have to attend from day to day, with no sign of diminution, I hope to go to Kalimpong myself where I will stay for a little while. There are so many things that I must attend to in different parts of India that some times I feel I will never be able to come to America, yet, I am quite certain that I shall be there before the Autumn.

I always regretted that Catherine and you have not come out to India before. Conditions here are really quite normal and, I believe, as normal as one could expect in any country these days. It would be nice for you and for Catherine to be with Mother for a little while and I would like you to think over this matter when you have time.

Mother's book, "Foundations of Buddhism" is being brought out again by the Mahabodhi Society and George's large work on the History of Tibet is being published by the Royal Asiatic Society of Bengal. There is so much to do that even five years would not exhaust the present programme. I am at present negotiating for the Indian Government to publish George's large Tibetan Dictionary which was completed by him some time ago, of course, that is a very monumental work and would require a lot of editing before it is ready for printing. I am giving you all this news since you ask me to give more details. The girls are well and flourishing. Mother and George will probably take a house in Kalimpong and remain there for the time being.

As regards Kulu, our Doctor is in charge of our estate there looking after it and trying to improve the property, whatever that may mean.

I have still, as I said before, hopes that you both come to India some day and that I shall be able to show you personally all the places that are of special interest. I would have certainly come to the United States earlier were it not for my work tying me down here, unfortunately it is not painting, but all sorts of other, perhaps rather irrelevant duties but they cannot be avoided for the time being.

You were quite right, when you last wire came I was away from Bombay, I was in Bangalore, which you can find on the map somewhere west of Madras in the middle of the Indian Peninsula, my wife has an estate there which I hope will be very profitable some day. Let us hope the hope materialises!

Economically India is both inflation and depression and one really does not know how these two conditions seem to co-exist alongside each other. Yet, life goes on fairly well and people who come from abroad say conditions here are infinitely better, which I believe. Of course, the uncertainty of the general situation has its repercussions here but on the whole whatever happens India reacts much more slowly than any other country. After all, most of India's population is still on the land and only a very insignificant number is employed in Industries. In the present state of our world I still prefer this country because here you can still find that which our West is fast losing, contact with life. Tradition of life as it has come down to us through ages a continuity of evolution and development and civilisation has not changed the general outlook on life as abruptly as it has changed it in the West with the result that the West has, to a great extent, lost its roots and the present civilisation has not been digested by the masses. This richness of life which you find in India is something which makes India very precious to me from so many different points of view and in the surviving tradition one can still find so much of the original thought which has brought this about. Practically every day, with friends, we discuss the modern trends of civilisation, the unavoidable enslavement of mankind by industrial development and the gradual change over from some sort of a freedom which life on land gives you, to the abject slavery which a worker in factory and mill must experience. There is no solution for this problem because civilisation in itself trying to emancipate man and free him by giving him the freedom of movement and expression yet binds him by virtue of the necessity to maintain that civilisation as without maintenance it breaks down completely and leaves nothing for man to fall back upon. Perhaps in the future we shall be able to discover some means of co-ordination of life on land with some sort of Cottage Industry as it has been done in France and Japan where weaving was done at home and only the assemblage and the bigger operations conducted in factories. As one can definitely observe, our modern civilisation does not make man any better, on the contrary, it deprives him of a great many human qualities, and while it frees his thought it also couples it to some extent as it fills our mind with all sorts of irrelevant issues and constantly occupies our attention with some sort of outside impetus thus, man loses the faculty of independent thinking and becomes like a parrot, repeating words and digests by other people as there is no time to form ones own opinions, and if you look round, man is not any better, on the contrary, there is every evidence that man deteriorates. Look at all the crime waves that sweep the country, look at the present outlook of young men and women, you will see for yourself that unless a complete change in our attitude towards some higher valuation comes, and comes soon, we shall definitely go into a dead corner from which there will be no issue.

I read in the papers that at Harvard the Russian Sociologist Mr. T. Sorokin, is now the head of a research fund to discover the means which would make man better. This, of course, is a hopeful manifestation and I wish him every success, but I believe almost every man knows in his own heart what is really necessary to be better and how to be better except that no one wants to practise it.

I was very happy to have the list of Father's paintings which Catherine sent me, but I notice that some of them are not of the earlier group and must have been put there in place of some that may have been removed at the time.

I was delighted to have the two little snaps of Kay (junior), if you have a more recent snap of her please send it to me.

Much love from us both to Catherine and yourself,

(S. Roerich).

Dear Sir,

We were very happy to receive from you the little brochure with selected portions of the TEACHINGS. Whatever you take from the Teachings is always beautiful, is always full of special significance. Like a wonderful mirror it reflects your own thoughts and you will always find something which is especially needed and important. Great Truth is infinite and will always give whatever is nearest to you and there shall never be the end of the approaches from which it may be viewed or experienced. Everyday we must remember to try to make of the day as much as possible in every way, as no one knows how many days life has in store for us and it never comes tomorrow because the secret of everything lies in today.

They write to us from Kalimpong and Darjeeling that the weather is very wonderful this year. The mountains are clear, full of snow and there are no clouds to cover the great ranges. We shall always remember the beautiful days we have spent in those regions and let the memory of the beautiful ranges inspire us with all that for which they stand. We shall remember all our experiences and the beautiful contacts which we had in front of these great mountains and let these memories in turn inspire us to still greater and ceaseless efforts to come nearer to those great ideals.

We shall think of you on Christmas day and at New Years' and we shall send to you, to Katherine and to Dora our love and best thoughts for the coming year. Though the portends are not bright, we can make of it a specially fruitful year as far as we are concerned and in making it so, we shall rejoice and make others happy.

We send you and Dora our best thoughts with love. SV.

Dear Sir,

We were delighted to have the folder on the new apartment house in which you have acquired the top floor. It has a beautiful view, it has an appropriate name and it looks very compactly and conveniently designed. The terrace may be a bit cold in the winter as it does not seem to be enclosed. The best part of it of course is the view and it shall be an endless source of delight and inspiration to see the ever changing colours and the beautiful Alpen Glahn. Do the two elevators reach to the top floor or do they stop at the floor below?

In India we have many a difficulty over which no one has any control and we hope that they will resolve themselves in the near future. Of course the predictions are that two more years are difficult from a point of view of food especially. It is a certain three years cycle which has to be passed through. The food situation is serious, but thanks to the timely help of many nations including the United States, conditions have been controlled and food grains are available in reduced quantity only. But if the next years will have a scarcity of rains, it shall become very serious. There are many restive elements who are looking for every opportunity to cause trouble. Though in our own plantation we are not so much dependent on water as other agricultural developments are, yet we already feel the drought and our lakes are completely dry which has never happened before. With all that there are no signs of rains which ought to have come at this time. Temperatures are considerably above normal and everything points to difficult times ahead.

Our trip to North has been postponed and we have not as yet fixed the date of our departure. The Punjab State to which Kulu belonged has been now divided into three portions - Punjab, Haryana and Himachal Pradesh. We shall be part of Himachal Pradesh which is a Himalayan Region taking in the North Western Himalayan Areas. It is unfortunate that one must have divisions at this time, but this is only a follow-up of certain mistakes that have been committed some years ago. People have ways of complicating their lives and creating new Karma when things seemed to have settled down to a certain mode of life.

Our days are spent as usual in our work with heavy correspondence in which I am far behind as there is a large volume of Russian letters and I have no Russian Secretary to do the work.

We are always happy whenever we hear from you and we both send you our very best thoughts and wishes and hope to hear from you soon again.

I imagine Katherine is away to the Canary Islands.
I hope she likes them. When is she planning to return from there?

By very best L. Dron

Dear Inge,

We were distressed to hear from Katherine about your recent illness and about the operation which you had to undergo. We are grateful that the operation has passed off well and that you are now on the way to recovery. You shall have to be very careful, but I am sure all the symptoms will disappear.

Though we have not written to you for some time, we have very often thought of you and visualized you in your life in Switzerland. Time has passed, many events have taken place. We have seen many changes, but above everything and beyond the changes of time stand those higher relationships that are the only feelings worthwhile in the sequence of passing years. In the many years that I have known you, I have always felt for you that friendship which has spanned long years of diverse experiences.

Here in India we have been passing through very difficult periods. Life has become much more complicated in every way and when one looks back it is extraordinary to think how simple were things even only some ten years ago. We live in a maze of regulations which make life most complicated and unpredictable. There is a vast increase of population and I doubt very much that it shall be possible to solve all these problems in the foreseeable future. Yet life must go on and everyone of us must contribute to it according to our capacity.

We both send to you dear Inge our best thoughts for a very quick recovery and we wish you everything that is best.

Love from us

My Dearest Leg,

I hope you have fully recovered from your operation and its after effects. We often think of you and even if we have not written, you must know that we always send you our affectionate thoughts and wish you everything that is best. Do write to us and let us know how you are and something of your life these days.

We have returned from Kulu not so long ago where we have stayed this year less than usual on account of Devika being not quite well which necessitated treatment both in Bombay and Delhi.

Life in India has become very complicated with seemingly unsurmountable obstacles looming large on every horizon and threatening in so many different ways. When one looks at all these complex problems it seems sometimes a solution may well be never found intellectually, but there is the greater wisdom of Providence and we can always hope that some unexpected solution may bring some consolation and possible restoration of some felicity. As always all problems are man-made and it is man only that can remove them from his path.

I have been painting again, working on a large series of paintings mainly on philosophical and pan-human subjects. They are large and therefore also entail extra work. Many have not as yet been properly photographed, but as soon as they are photographed I shall send you some copies however unsatisfactory they usually are. In this connection I would like to say that the photographs which were made of my portraits of Katherine in Switzerland were among the best obtained so far. The problem of reproductions was never solved by us here satisfactorily and the best efforts have fallen far short of our expectations.

In Kulu I have done considerable research work on the 'Art of Kulu', visited many new temples, photographed many new sculptures. There are still a few temples to be visited, a few sculptures to be recorded. I was happy that my representations to the Government about the restoration and preservation of a certain important temple has borne fruit and the Government has now included it into the list of protected monuments.

Even since you were last in India, life has changed a great deal, not to say or use the word deteriorated. What with the unbelievable increase in population which cannot be checked inspite of some efforts by the Government and the inability of people to emigrate because nobody wants to have any emigration these days - a point of saturation can be foreseen in the not too distant future. This problem completely frustrates every effort to raise the standard of living and improve the economy of the country.

Do let us hear from you and in the meantime take good care of yourself and give our warmest greetings to Katherine, her husband and to Dora.

*Take good care of yourself and w. d.
Devina joins me in sending you our love.*

SV
