My Dear Good Friend,

I was really happy to have your letter, as I always am when I hear from you. Thank you for your kind words.

A copy of the broadcast is enclosed, but then it touches upon only a few of the more significant and immediate points. Father's life has been a monument of creative activity, which never ceased up to his passing. A new Monograph on Father has recently come out in the Soviet Union. It has a very good text, several other books are in preparation including a book on his philosophy.

How are you? If you ever come to Bangalore let us know.

With our affectionate regards to you and your family,

Yours sincerely,

(SVETOSLAV ROERICH)
