Dear Dr. Roerich,

My wife and I shall be very happy if you and Mrs. Roerich will kindly have lunch with us on Saturday the 17th instant at our residence at 1 P.M. I am giving you as long a notice as possible so that you may be able to come. We expect Bhikshu Sangharakshita, an Englishman, who is now converted to Buddhism and is staying at Kalimpong. We met him yesterday at the Indian Institute of Culture where he is at present delivering a series of lectures on Buddhism. He said that he had met you at Kalimpong and would be very glad to meet you again. Dr. B.P.Wadia and Madame Sophia Wadia are also likely to come.

We shall talk about this further when we meet at your place on Sunday afternoon (11th instant).

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Dr. S.Roerich,
