Dear Mr. Hoerlich,

Allow me to introduce myself to you as a writer on Kashmir who is on the staff of S. P.
College, Srinagar.

Time and again, I have interested myself in articles on you and your versatile work.
The current issue of the TREND has emboldened me to write to you. My friend, Mr M. Kashyap, who proposed to visit you in May last, also writes to me about you and your varied interests.

I feel like asking you a question or two. I expect you will find time to answer them.

Have you visited Kashmir? Do you prefer Kulu to Kashmir?

What is your idea of a progressive documentary that would suit the needs of present-day India?

With respectful regards,

I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Somnath Dhar

Mr Stevoslav Hoerlich,
