Dear Mr. & Mrs. Roerich:

Thank you for the very nice Christmas card which, due to my not having given you a new address (see above) was slightly late! However, a Christmas card in Mid-March is very nice to have!

I expect Lina has been keeping you abreast of the Museum activities. Just recently we spent a day photographing in color about 15 of the large paintings and I hope soon we will be able to send you prints or post-cards of there.

I trust everything is going well for you.

We read in the newspapers with sorrow of India's lack of food and with pleasure of the impending visit of her great new minister Mme. Gandhi.

Best Wishes to you,

Sincerely

Edgar Lamont

Dear Mr. Roerich:

As Siva Fosdick may have told you, The Nicholas Roerich Museum is planning to publish a modest 32 page Monograph as part of the celebration of your father's Centenary in 1974. Included in the format will be many color, tip-on reproductions and black and white off-set reproductions and some text. Included in the text will be an article by Siva, articles and quotations by Tagore, Nehru, and other internationally known friends, and an article by myself which will be modeled on the talk I give each year.

I do not feel the book would be complete without some thoughts from you!

Perhaps you could send me something already written, or, something new and special for the Centenary. I would say about 300-500 words.

Please give this some thought.

Sincerely,

Ed van Jaarsveld

Dear Mr. Roerich:

Since we are now in the process of having type set on the Nicholas Roerich Museum Monograph to celebrate your father's centenary, I wonder when you might be able to send us the article we discussed in previous letters.

I'm pleased to say the work on it is shaping up quite nicely and will, I hope, result in a modest but quality little book.

Sincere best wishes,

Edgar Lansbury
