Dear Sir,

Newspaper reports mention about the holding of an exhibition of your revered father's paintings in New Delhi.

Being naturally interested in the development of Arts and Cultural interests, it is the earnest desire of the members of our organisation that an exhibition of your father's paintings should be held here as early as possible.

I, therefore, invite you to shift the exhibition, after it has run its course in New Delhi, to this place. We hope that it will be possible for you to allow us at least a full week for the exhibition.

We shall be thankful for the favourable consideration of our invitation and shall await an early reply by return of next mail.

Yours sincerely,
