November 8, 1901

My dear Mr. Rozier,

I was so

delighted to get your letter, the first I have ever had from India. You must have had a very warm journey, but the long preparation of last summer must have helped you to bear the heat.

what a lovely time we had with you together last summer here, in the charming tea house.
The little house is as lovely as before, and even a squirrel was playing on the grounds.
We all wondered whether you will be giving your exhibition in New York, or somewhere outside of N.Y. Am going home to night refreshed after the vigorous air and most pleasant stay, to the turmoil of the city."

"With my love to you and hope to hear soon from you yours devoted Sina

My dear Mr. Barish.

I cannot let this letter go without adding very

2
dearest ever love. and hope that you are enjoying India and the best of health. We had had a happy Sunday with Mrs Fichtman and we have all wished that you were here. Love sincerely
Virginia Palmer

My letter has been interrupted and there has been no room left me to write all that I intended, so don't be surprised to hear from me again, in the meantime we would be so happy to hear from you.

Always with sincere affection
Theodora Palmer

We had the great pleasure of bringing Mrs. Lichtman up with us by water from New York. Something we have tried very often to find to accomplish, and have enjoyed very much having her here yesterday & to-day, and we only wish you were with us.

Dearest Iretis: —

I have had 2 most enjoyable days, coming with Misses Theodora and Virginia here, to their delightful home. We recalled

My dear Mr. Boeris.

I deeply appreciate your thoughtfulness in writing and am most grateful for your kind message of sympathy.

The cruel separation from my wife is a tragedy to me.
I try to find comfort in thinking of our happy past and I recall the many lovely times we had together in

You and Mrs. Lichtenauer.

With sincere appreciation of your kindness and trusting you are very well.

Most sincerely,
Virginia Palmer.
