My dear Mr. Roerich,

I hope you had a pleasant journey and reached Delhi safely.

I have already made arrangements for the despatch of manuscripts and the same will be sent today or tomorrow. The barbed has not yet gone, but they hope to send it by the middle of this week.

I am sending herewith a letter which I received from Balakrishnan.

With all best wishes to Madame and yourself.

Yours very sincerely
Raghawan

My dear Mr. Rorick,

I hope you have received my last letter. I have already sent the murtries by passenger train last week and the railway receipt was sent to Mrs. Chandini by registered post. They must have reached there by this time. I got it at Rs 2/8/- each (Talas) and the packing and forwarding came to Rs 3/-; in all Rs 53/-. The freight is to be paid at Bangalore, as the merchants here do not send goods freight-paid.

Regarding barbed wire we have not yet got the booking. The necessary application has already been made and we hope we will be able to book it this week.

I have taken delivery of the picture from the Jehangir Art Gallery and have kept it at home. The Kodak pictures are not yet ready. It will be ready by the week-end.

I am sending you herewith the Cash memo for the month's and also a registered letter re- directed from Bangalore to my address.

Regarding the Car, I shall send you the estimate in a couple of days.
Yestwant Rao has already got an estimate.
I would like to have it checked up before
I pass it on to you.

I read the report about the offering of the Academy.

I hope Madame and you are in the best of health and with all best wishes to you both.

Yours sincerely
K. Raghavan

My dear Mr. Roerich,

I thank you for your letter.

I hope you had a pleasant journey and reached Kalimpong safely.

The barbed wire and the binding wire were sent yesterday and today I have sent the railway receipts to Mrs. Chandhuri. The munkeys, as I wrote you, were already sent and they must have received them. Mrs. Chandhuri very kindly wrote to me that she had received the railway receipt.

I took delivery of the picture from the Art Gallery and have kept it in my house. I have received the photo from Kodak which I am sending to you by registered post.

I am sending you an estimate for the repair of the Car. Yeshwant says that the Auto Union Works people were known to him and they will make a good job of it. He will remain there and see that everything is put right. Please let me have your instructions.

I have just written to Balakrishna regarding visitors coming to see the Estate. and have also written to Nigam & Co. as per your instructions.

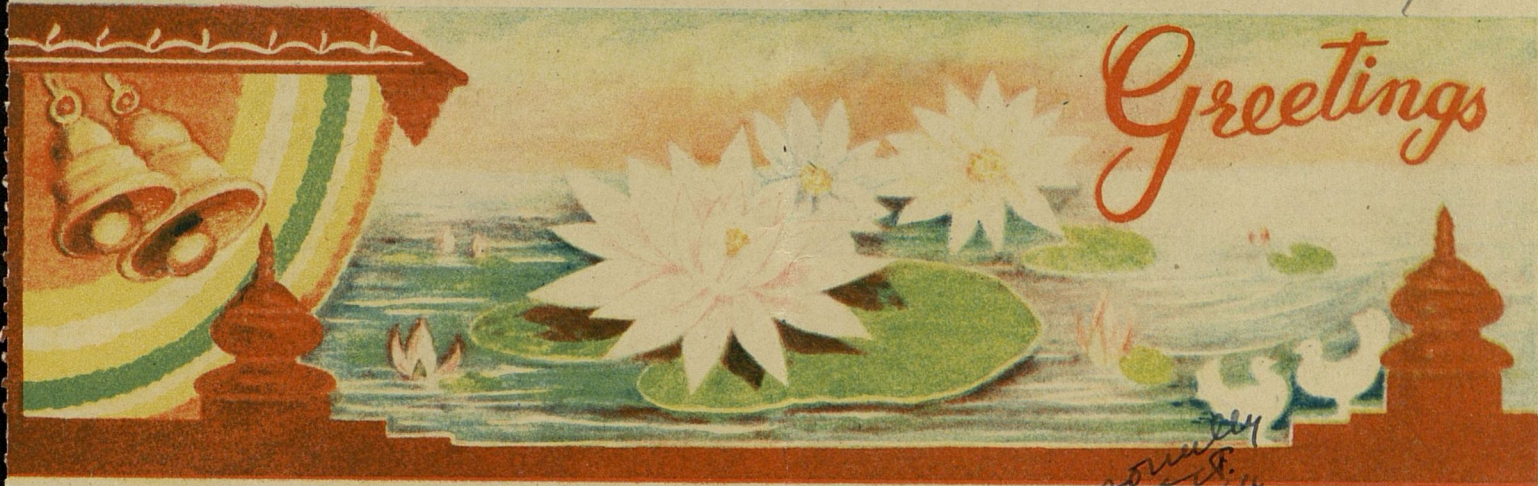

I am sending herewith a letter addressed to you which I received from Balakrishnan and also the receipt from Yeshwant.

I hope Madame and you are in the best of health and with all good wishes,

yours very sincerely
Raghavan

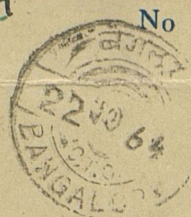

P. S. Mrs. Chandhuri wrote to me that she had no news from you and I replied to her the next day and also sent her Madame's picture shaking hands with the President which appeared in the Times of India. The parcels have arrived and I have kept them as they are.
