Dear Mr Roerich,

I have your kind letter. I am leaving tonight for Guntur to attend the Inauguration of the Andhra High Court. I expect to be back by Wednesday. I shall write to Madam after my return.

A friend of mine says she has met you before somewhere in Europe. She is Kanti Berry. She is the sister of Kamala (Baldwin's wife). Kanti may go to Bangalore

about the middle of this month. She is anxious to meet you & Mrs Poerich.
She is likely to stay in our house in West House Co.

With kindest wishes
to you & Madame,

Yrs sincerely

my dear Svetा,

It was very kind of you to remember and send me your love and good wishes on my birthday. Many grateful thanks.

I have heard from Devika of your portrait of Mr Radhakrishnan. I am sure it will be a masterpiece.

I hope soon there is an exhibition of your paintings and that may be the occasion of the inauguration of our Cultural centre.

Our vacation
commenced on the 3rd but I have been exceedingly busy:

I am looking forward to meeting you in June in Bangalore

With abiding love,

Ever yours
P. P. Raju,
