Dear Roerich,

Your letter of the 20th July seems to have crossed my reply to your previous letter. The balance of prints of your Triptych we have here pending your instructions for their disposal, and we would like you to accept these quite free of charge.

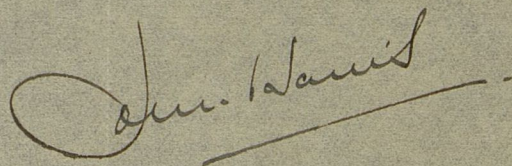

I would reaffirm the position with regard to block-making for all your pictures, and will get into touch with you later on. In the meantime, until we finally confirm the arrangement, we should not require a deposit of any sort.

The Home Library Club have also sent you the set of books - 'The War in Pictures' - which I hope will arrive with you quite safely.

Yes, the monsoon has really broken here, and everything is nice and cool and green, but, my! how I envy you your Kulu home. Some of your fruit sounds really delicious, and I would greatly appreciate some which you may send to the office address.

With my kind regards,

Yours very sincerely,

S.M. Roerich, Esq.,
