Dear Sir,

I am directed by Diwan Chaman Lall, Chairman Hotel Standards and Rate Structure Committee, to request you to be kind enough to give us your views regarding tourism in the Kanga and Kulu Valley. Should you so prefer we should be very happy to receive your oral evidence in New Delhi on a date convenient to you during this month.
We should be grateful if you would let us have a reply at your earliest convenience.

Yours truly,

(Labh Chand)
Assistant Secretary.

Dear Mr. Roerich,

We are grateful for Shrimati Devika Rani's letter of 12th instant stating that you will be available for discussions regarding tourism in the Kangra and Kulu Valley sometime in March or early April. Diwan Chaman Lall has directed me to inform you that our Committee will be finishing its work by the 31st March 1958. We shall therefore be grateful if you could kindly make it convenient to be available for these discussions sometime before the end of March 1958.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Labh Chand
