Dear Dr Koenig,

It was a delight to listen to the tender and respectful homage you paid to the genius of your illustrious father last Sunday on the radio. It was nice to hear your voice after long long months.

My ideas about your father were that he was a painter and a mystic. I did not know that he was a voluminous writer too and a confident interpreter of India's ancient genius.

Can you kindly send me a copy of the script? I would like my children to read it, as I know they did not have a chance to listen to the broadcast.

With affectionate regards both to Madame and yourself,

Yours very sincerely
H. Srinivasan
