My dear Mr. Roerich,

I was delighted to hear from you. It has been such a long time since we met or wrote each other. I missed you and Mrs. Devika Rani Roerich when you were here. My wife and I had sent you a couple of invitations and wondered whether you got them. We shall look forward to see you when you are next here.

Regarding the publication of the speech in the "Economic Weekly" I have forwarded Mr. Sachin Chaudhuri's letter to the Secretaries and Managers of the Companies. I am afraid however it is too late for this year.

Yours sincerely,
