Dear W. Reich,

A great Aristotelical prodigy is come here; he can mentally do in a minute things which we may require hours to do. He is blind too. He is to give a demonstration at the Theological Lodge tomorrow (Sunday) morning at 8.30 A.M. If you can

much pleased.

Yours truly

Alvin Wilson

My dear Mr. Roerich,

I have been
expecting you here
all these days and
have been enquiring
at your Bangalore off & on. I was away for some time. I am
likely to be away
again, for about a month this time & I can not know if I shall be returning before the middle of May. I do not know if I may expect you to be here

till then.

I shall be leaving
this on the 13th inst.

In any case please
keep me informed of your movements so
that if at all possible
we may meet.
with all good wishes

Yours,
D. M. Morrison

My dear Mr. Ravi,

It is really so kind
of you to have thought of sending the honey so expeditiously. It arrived duly. The most auspicious point about it is that it arrived here on the birthday of my daughter.
That shows that your good wishes in plenty have come with the sweet honey. Thanks me again.

I am looking forward
to meeting you again
in November. Please keep me in touch with your movements.

My respectful regards to your saintly father & mother & regards to your wife.

Your sincere,
R. Srinivasan

My dear Mr. Roerich.

Thanks very much for your kind letter. The two kinds of honey you sent are both nice; it is rather difficult to say which is better. If at all I have to make choice I would prefer the kind you sent in the glass jar to that you sent in the tin box. But both are to my taste and I enjoy them both equally.

My daughter who was caring for me since death

to a daughter and both the mother and the bride are doing well. I hope they will have the good wishes of you all.

Thank you my respects to your parents and my warm regards to the other members of your family.

I am really hoping
we shall be able to meet in November next.

With all good wishes.

My dear W. Reich.

It is really so
kind of you to think of me so often and keep me in touch with you.

I am grateful to you
for the promised honey which I look forward to eagerly. I am so glad we shall have an opportunity to meet
you here again in the fall, and we shall look forward to that pleasure expectantly.

Then give my unconditional regards to your parents and my best wishes to the other members of your family.

affectionate greetings.

interested in it.

I shall arrange
accordingly.

Are you likely to be here tomorrow afternoon, say by 3 P.M.
If so, I shall call
on you.

Very truly
