Re: Leslie B. Van Dusen

Dear Mr. Roerich:

I am greatly disappointed in not having received the courtesy of a reply to my letter of November 23rd, 1938. I feel that the matter of $50.00 is too small to enter into any protracted correspondence and my client certainly is entitled to be paid for the Spanish Table he sold to you. I expect you to attend to this matter forthwith by sending a remittance to me. Failing to hear from you, I shall place the matter with an attorney in accordance with my client's instructions.

Very truly yours,
