Handwritten text in a script, likely Indic, arranged in approximately 12 horizontal lines. The text is densely packed and appears to be a continuous passage or a list of items. The script is dark and contrasts with the aged, yellowish paper. The lines are roughly parallel but follow the curve of the strip. The text is mostly legible but some characters are difficult to decipher due to the script and the condition of the document.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Arabic or Persian, on the left side of the fragment. The text is arranged in approximately three lines.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Arabic or Persian, in the middle section of the fragment. The text is arranged in approximately three lines.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Arabic or Persian, on the right side of the fragment. The text is arranged in approximately three lines.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript, written on aged, yellowed paper. The text is arranged in a single line across the width of the strip. The script is dense and difficult to decipher, but appears to be a form of historical shorthand or a specific dialect. The paper shows signs of wear, including two distinct circular holes and irregular edges.
