

HEADQUARTERS 84TH INFANTRY DIVISION
Office of the Commanding General

1

APO 84, c/o Postmaster
New York, New York.
December 12, 1944.

Mrs. Katherine S. Campbell,
Route Number 1,
Brookfield, Connecticut.

My dear Mrs. Campbell:

On November 20, 1944 your son, Corporal Spencer G. Campbell 11079303, Company C, 333rd Infantry, was killed in action in Germany.

Corporal Campbell met his death while engaged in action against the enemy. The entire division has suffered a personal loss in the death of your son for we knew him to be a conscientious and courageous soldier and leader. During the stress of combat he remained cheerful and cool-headed, and was an inspiration to his men.

Corporal Campbell was buried in an American Military Cemetery in Holland. A United States Army chaplain administered the last rites in accordance with his Protestant faith.

All who knew Corporal Campbell join with me in extending to you our heartfelt sympathy and condolence.

Sincerely,

A. R. Bolling
Brigadier General, U. S. Army
Commanding.
